Privacy Notice and Consent for the Processing of Personal Data

PGA Website — Member Profiles, Photos & Digital Content

1. Information Notice

In accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data (General Data Protection Regulation — GDPR), the Professional Golfers' Association (PGA) is committed to processing your personal data safely, transparently, and only for the specific purposes described in this notice.

The PGA, acting as Data Controller, processes personal data collected directly from you through our website, member registration forms, photo upload features, and other digital channels, by both automated and manual means.

2. Purposes of Data Processing

Your personal data and any photos or media you share with us may be used for the following purposes:

- Publishing your member profile, biography, and photos on the PGA website and related digital platforms.
- Displaying tournament results, rankings, statistics, and other golf-related performance data associated with your profile.
- Sharing content across PGA's official social media channels, newsletters, and promotional materials, where you have provided explicit consent.
- Communicating with you regarding PGA membership, events, training programmes, and related services.
- Managing your account, processing membership renewals, and administering qualifications and certifications.
- Complying with legal obligations, professional regulatory requirements, and responding to requests from authorised public or judicial authorities.

Your refusal to provide the requested data may prevent the PGA from creating or maintaining your member profile on the website and delivering associated services.

3. Data Collected

The personal data we may collect and process includes, but is not limited to:

- Full name, date of birth, nationality, and contact details (email address, phone number, postal address).
- Profile photographs, action photos, and any other images or videos you upload or provide.

- Golf performance data, handicap index, tournament history, and professional credentials.
- PGA membership number, qualification level, and related certification details.
- Website usage data and interaction logs, for the purpose of improving user experience (where applicable, subject to cookie consent).

4. Recipients of Your Data

Your data is processed by the PGA and may be shared with the following categories of recipients, solely for the purposes described above:

- PGA affiliated organisations, regional associations, and tour governing bodies.
- Technology and website service providers acting as data processors on behalf of the PGA.
- Media partners and official sponsors, strictly in accordance with separately obtained consents.
- Public authorities, judicial bodies, or regulatory agencies where required by applicable law.

The PGA does not sell your personal data to third parties.

5. Your Rights Under GDPR

In accordance with Regulation (EU) 2016/679, you are entitled to exercise the following rights at any time:

- Right of access — to obtain confirmation of whether your data is being processed and to receive a copy.
- Right to rectification — to request correction of inaccurate or incomplete personal data.
- Right to erasure ('right to be forgotten') — to request deletion of your data where there is no overriding legitimate reason for its continued processing.
- Right to restriction of processing — to request that we limit the use of your data in certain circumstances.
- Right to data portability — to receive your data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format.
- Right to object — to object to the processing of your data on grounds of legitimate interests or direct marketing.
- Right not to be subject to automated individual decision-making, including profiling, which produces legal or similarly significant effects.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with your national Data Protection Authority at any time.

6. How to Exercise Your Rights

To exercise any of the above rights, or for further information on how the PGA processes your personal data, you may contact our Data Protection Officer (DPO) through any of the following channels:

- By email: dpo@pgaromania.ro
- Online: via the Privacy & Data section of the PGA Romania website at pgaromania.ro/privacy

Declaration and Consent to the Processing of Personal Data

1. I, the undersigned, by signing this declaration, confirm that I have read and understood the above Information Notice and expressly consent to the PGA processing my personal data, including the photographs and digital content I provide, for the purposes set out therein. I agree that the PGA may publish this information on its official website and share it with the categories of recipients listed above.

The personal data I consent to being processed and published includes:

- Full name, nationality, and professional biography.
 - Profile photograph(s) and any additional images or videos I upload.
 - Golf performance data, career statistics, and tournament results.
 - PGA membership details and qualifications.
2. I further declare that:
 - I have been made aware of the information presented in this Privacy Notice regarding the processing of my personal data, in accordance with the applicable legal, regulatory, and contractual framework.
 - I agree to the processing of my personal data on the basis of consent in accordance with Article 6(1)(a) of the General Data Protection Regulation, as described in this Declaration.

I GIVE MY CONSENT: YES ☐ NO ☐
